

Master of Psychology (Clinical)

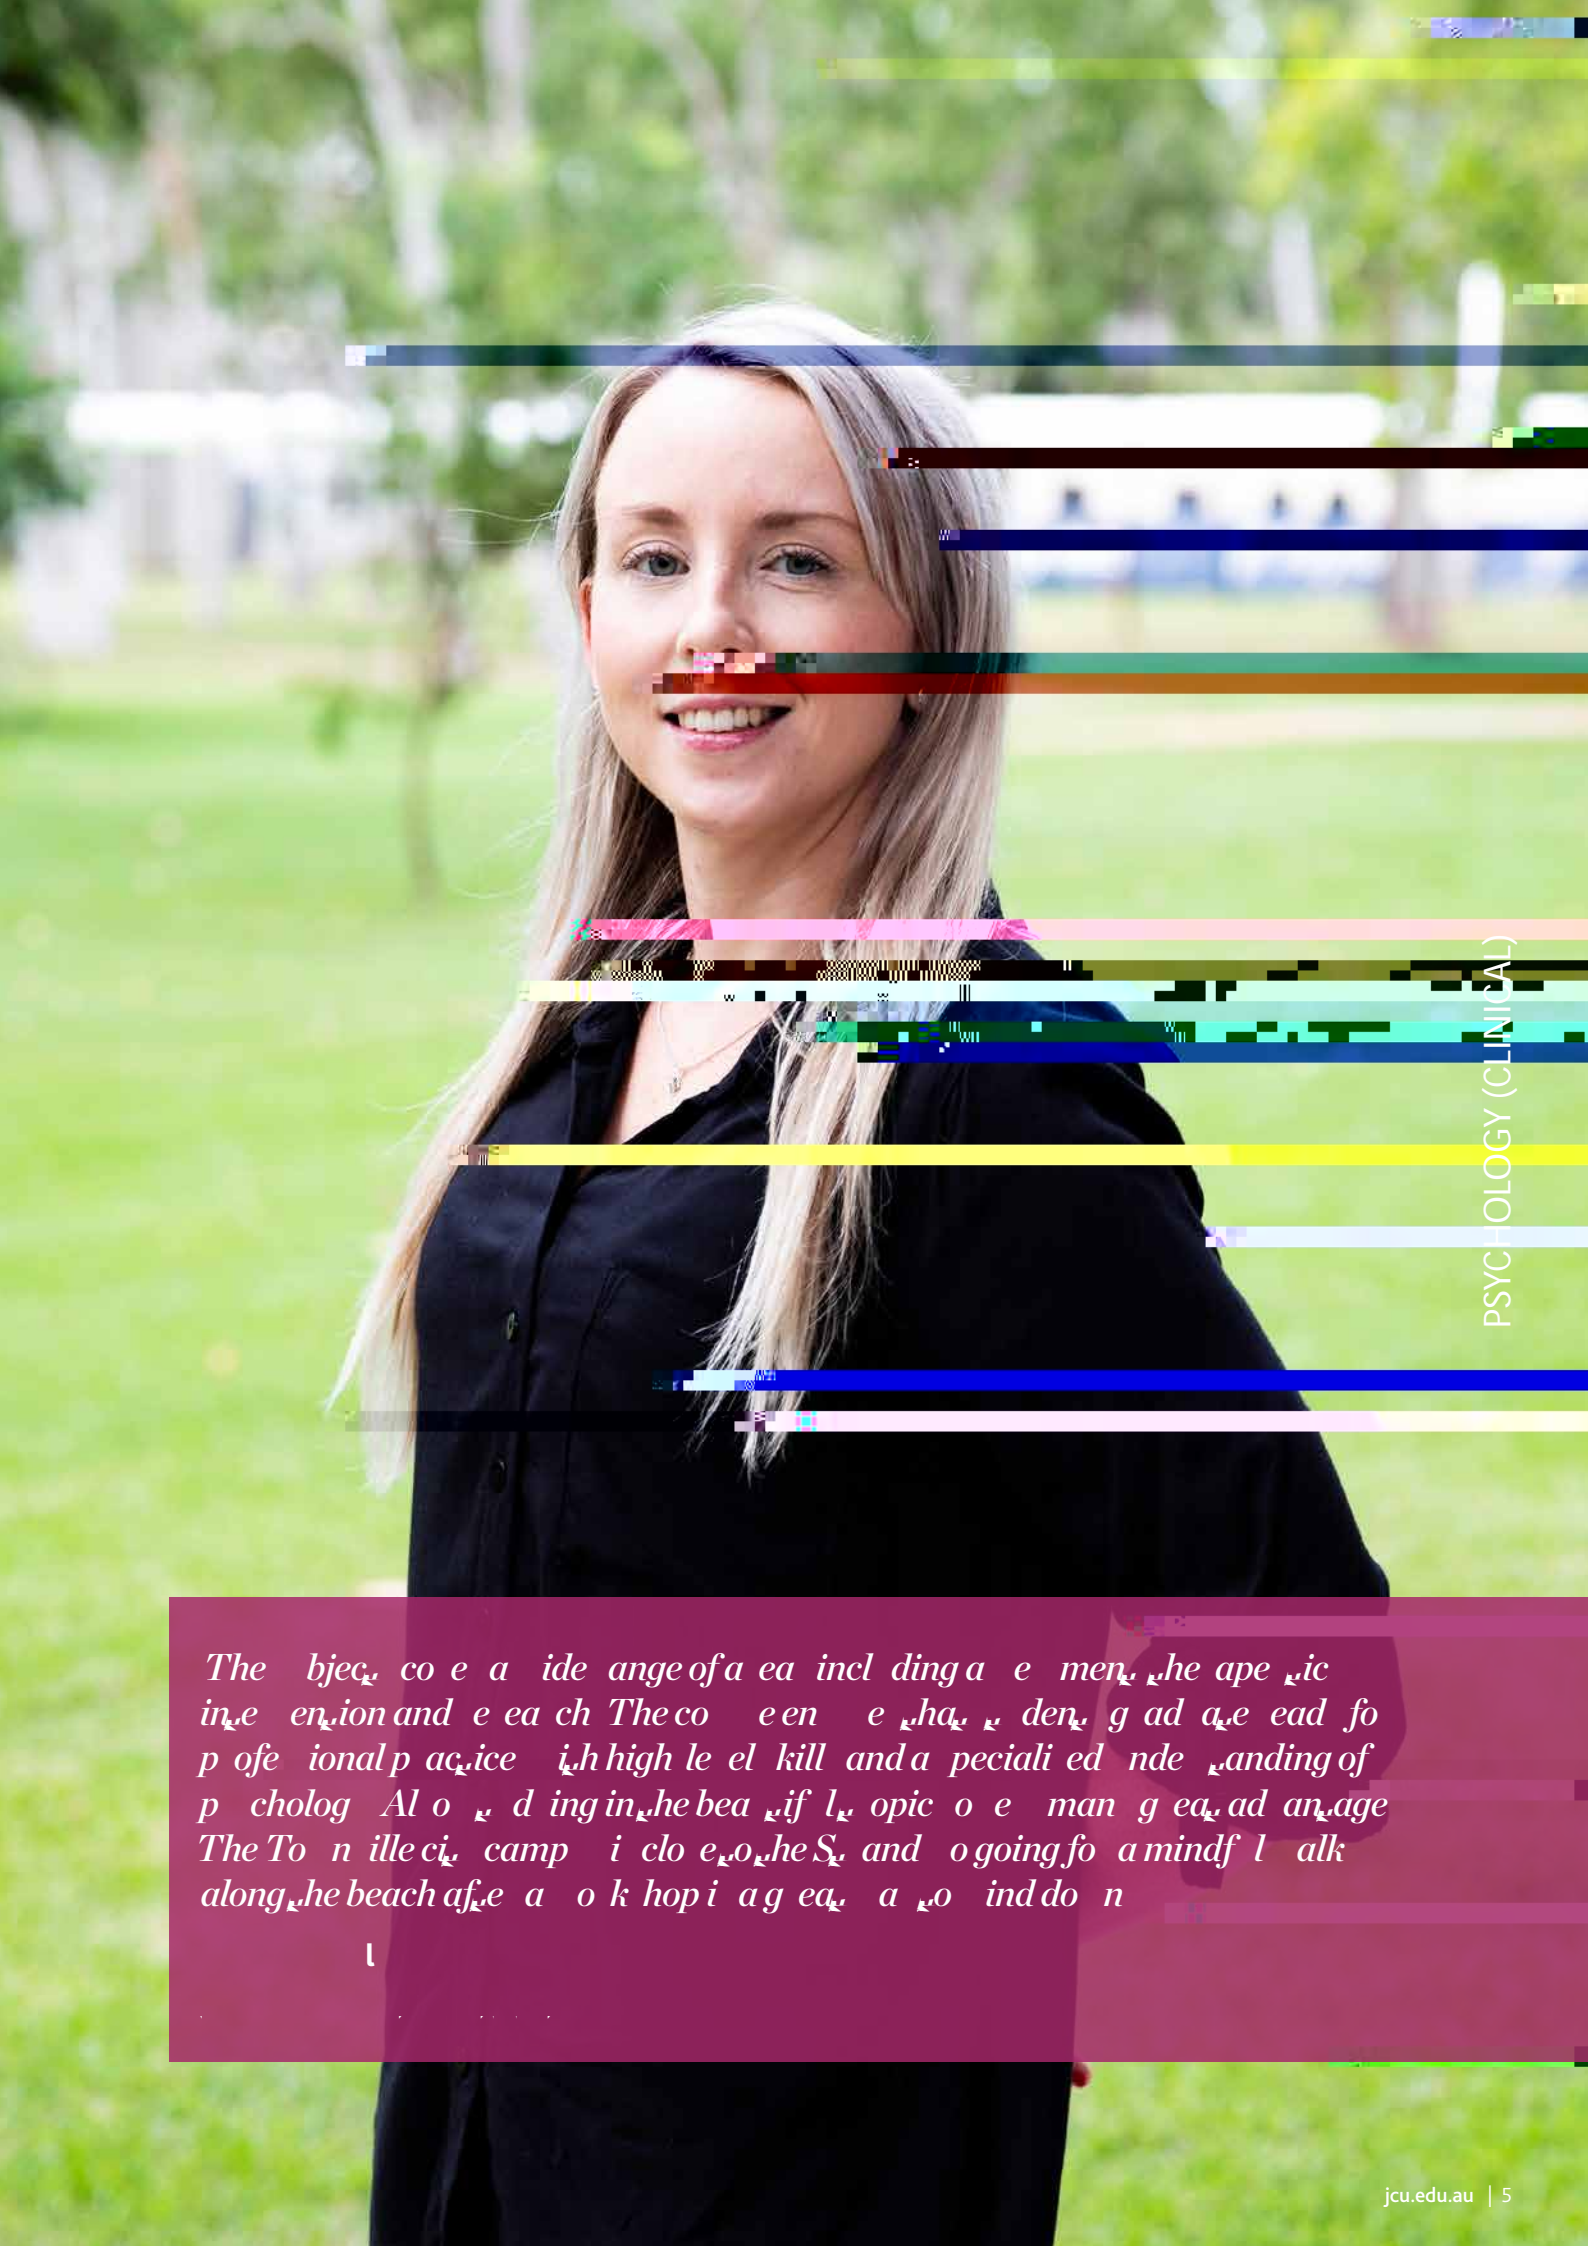

Master of Psychology (Clinical)

✔ Pursue your passion and upgrade your career to become a practising Clinical Psychologist with JCU's Master of Psychology (Clinical). Through this course you will gain the advanced academic and practical training for professional practice that is required for registration as a practising psychologist.

✔ Benefit from JCU's research focus and learn from world-renowned lecturers and leading industry professionals. Access JCU's observation suites and world-class training facilities and develop professional skills through extensive professional placements.

A :

The subject covers a wide range of areas including a theoretical and practical approach to the study of psychology. The course is designed to provide students with a high level of skill and a specialised understanding of psychology. Also included in the curriculum is the opportunity to engage in a range of activities. The Toonille campus is close to the Surf and is going for a mindful walk along the beach after a hot day in the sun. A good time to visit.

Career Opportunities

