Part B: Analysis of eco-social work (25%)

The analysis requires students to reflect on how principles of eco-social justice apply to their specific practice setting.

Students are asked to identify actual or potential micro, messo and macro interventions of eco-social work relevant to the work undertaken in their placement agency. Students need to critically reflect on how the ontological, epistemological and methodological assumptions, knowledge and strategies of Boetto's transformative eco-social model could inform their practice and the organisation in meeting its objectives and the needs of its client group.

In their reflections students need to consider how an understanding of eco-social work could be or has been utilised in their agency and how this could/has been evidenced.

3.2 Late submissions

Due dates for Assessment items in this subject (with exception of the compulsory online modules, online workshop and the Integration sessions) are determined by the timeframe and duration of the placement. The study planer contained at the end of this subject outline provides an overview of assignment due dates by example of a full-time placement. Students need to undertake amendments to these timelines if there are variations to the placement duration e.g. part-time placement. All assessment requirments need to be completed and provided to the relevant person by the last day of placement.

Students with outstanding assessment components after this date cannot pass the subject until this issue is addressed in a satisfactory manner as determined by the lecturer and/or liaison person (depending on the component outstanding) and may result in an X.

3.3 Special Consideration (including deferrals and extensions)

You are encouraged to access equity measures if you are affected by extenuating circumstances while undertaking the subject. JCU's Learning, Teaching and Assessment Procedure 3.1 requires that you must must make yourself available for assessments and examinations at the scheduled times and extensions or deferrals for an assessment item due to previously scheduled commitments such as weddings or holidays, will not be granted.

All Special Consideration requests can be applied for through the Special Consideration application form. The form is linked to the Special Consideration Procedure the Learning, Teaching and Assessment Procedures. You can also request
