DETAILS OF THE NOMINATION

This section is to provide the rationale and evidence as to why the nominated person is worthy of an honorary award of James Cook University. Nominations should clearly demonstrate how each factor has been met. Additional information may be appended to this form, if required.

Whilst completing this section, indicate if any of the activities being described were undertaken as part of a remunerated position. If this is the case, provide details of how the activities described were over and above those expected of the remunerated position.
