

Bachelor of Arts

✔ Learn to think creatively, analyse effectively and build the critical thinking skills necessary to work in today's modern society. Become a digital disruptor and make a difference in the world.

✔ You will be taught by world-class lecturers and experience small, friendly classes and personalised support. Practical work placements ensure you are work-ready when you graduate.

✔ You will study a selection of core subjects and your preferred discipline. Each discipline provides you with in-depth knowledge in that study area. You can choose a second discipline, or select two specialisations, which can complement your studies, or broaden your area of expertise.

COURSE.E

Disciplines

Within our undergraduate arts degree, you are able to choose from 12 disciplines. A discipline is your chosen area of specialisation. Not all disciplines are available at all campuses. The handbook provides detail about the subjects you can study within each discipline and the campuses each discipline is available at.

Anthropology

Understand cultural and ethnic differences and analyse how peoples' beliefs and social and cultural practices fit into wider social, political and economic contexts. Learn the research, observation and interview techniques that will equip you to work with people from diverse cultural backgrounds. Develop skills critical in decision making for governments, corporations and not-for profit organisations.

Archaeology

Develop skills in archaeological site recording and conservation. Participate in field trips to investigate heritage site excavations, and Australian Aboriginal rock art sites. You may also have the opportunity to travel on South-East Asian excursions. You will learn the fundamentals of archaeology, then expand on this knowledge with more specialised offerings in evolutionary, forensic, Asian, Australian and European archaeology.

Criminology

Learn why people are motivated to commit crime, and explore strategies to prevent law-breaking and rehabilitate offenders. Throughout your studies, you can participate in a wide range of extracurricular criminology student activities. This course equips you with skills to help make a difference in your community. Not all subjects in this discipline are available internally; you will need to take some subjects online.

English

Investigate and explore the riches of literature across the ages. You will develop your understanding of the English language and gain a high level of communication and reasoning skills while growing your passion for reading and writing. JCU English discipline students examine a wide range of literary periods and genres that provide a comprehensive source of historical and cultural understanding.

History

Gain an intimate knowledge of humanity by examining past societies and cultures. You will study the history of North Queensland, and develop your understanding of Australian history. Analyse major historical events in a global context and investigate how political, economic and environmental events shaped different communities.

Human Geography

Explore the interactions between people, natural events and the environment, and learn how political, social and environmental factors

ARTS

“Learning has been the highlight of university. I have enjoyed all of my subjects, especially the core Bachelor of Arts subjects, which were fascinating.”
